

STUDENT BULLETIN

Tuesday, February 7th, 2017

EVEN DAY

SATURDAY SCHOOL: This Saturday, February 11th, will be a 2 for 1 Saturday school. It is the last Saturday school before Winter Formal. Students who attend can clear up to 8 hours. Students who have parking permits and don't clear all of their detentions by next Monday, February 13th will have their parking permit taken away.

REFLECTIONS AT DISTRICT LEVEL: Congratulations to all the students who advanced to this year's 4th District PTA Reflections Awards. At last week's awards, Hannahlei Cabanilla placed 3rd for her Dance Choreography entry. There were a total of 12 students from Orange Unified that received awards from the 4th District PTA that includes all Orange County School Districts and parts of Los Angeles County.

Again, Congratulations to all! Remember, next year's theme is "Within Reach."

VALENTINE'S POLAROID PHOTOBOOTH: LINK (Liberty in North Korea) Club will be selling polaroids at a table in front of the big gym from February 7th to February 14th. The prices are:

- 1 picture for $3.00
- 2 pictures for $5.00
- 3 pictures for $7.00

Come take pictures for Valentine's Day! LINK will have cute Snapchat inspired props. Funds will go toward rescue missions for refugees in North Korea.

VALENTINE'S DESSERT CONCERT: Save the date for a very special Valentine's Dessert Concert on February 10th hosted by our very own Vocal Music Department. Enjoy love songs and favorite hits performed by students from the advanced choirs, and indulge in an unlimited dessert buffet with gourmet hot cocoa. This is the perfect event for a date night or relaxing evening for yourself and friends. Tickets are $12.00 and will be sold at the door. The performance starts at 7:00 p.m. We hope to see you there on February 10th!