

STUDENT BULLETIN

Wednesday, March 8th, 2017

ODD DAY

SENIOR GRADUATION PRODUCT DELIVERY DAY: Seniors don't forget to pick up your Graduation Announcements & Senior Items today in the Quad during Break & Lunch.

CAMPUS BEAUTIFICATION DAY: This Saturday, March 11th, is the PTSA's Annual Campus Beautification Day. It is a day when parents and students work to clean up and make our school better. It is from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Students can earn community service hours by participating. If you have detentions you would like to clear, you can go to Saturday School and we will pull you from Saturday School to help work. Saturday School students who work for all four hours will be given double credit for clearing detentions.

CSF (CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION) MEMBERSHIP DRIVE: Attention new and returning CSF members: the spring membership drive is this week and next week (March 6th to March 17th). Please pick up an application form and pay your member dues in the Student Center. Seniors, please check the paper on the Student Center counter to see how many applications you need to be a CSF sealbearer; then, turn in your completed application and receipt to the tables in front of the rose garden during lunch this week and next week.

GIRL UP CLUB MEETING: Today at lunch the Girl Up Club will be making care packages for a women's shelter. This event will take place in Room 116 (Mrs. Vinas). The Girl Up Club encourages everyone to stop by and help make a difference in our community.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL CLUB MEETING: On Thursday, March 9th, The Amnesty International Club will be having a meeting at lunch in Room 110 (Mrs. Boyle).

LIBERTY IN NORTH KOREA CLUB MEETING: LINK is having a club meeting at lunch on Friday, March 10th in Room 114 (Mr. Heck).

CSF (CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION) BOARD APPLICATIONS: If you are interested in becoming a CSF Board Member next year, board applications are now available in the Student Center. Turn in your completed application to Ms. Otero (Room 107) by lunch on Friday, March 17th.